VISUALIZATION OF ENTERTAINMENT CONTENT

ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE

5

Search results in a personalized system or a search system are graphically represented by elements having a graphical feature such as size or proximity to the viewer dependent upon a relevance of the represented item(s) to the search criteria. All available items searched are preferably displayed regardless of whether matching the search criteria (with matches distinguished from nonthe user with context for items matches), providing some degree of relevance to determined to have The graphical elements are updated specified criteria. with condition changes such as changes to search query elements or changes to the pool of items available to be searched. Similar or related results may be linked.